No. 32.

Port William, Financial Department,
The 11th July 1856.

Notification.—Extract from a Despatch from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors addressed to the Government of India, in the Financial Department, No. 40 of 1856, dated the 21st May:—

Para. 3. You will observe from para. 18 of our Despatch in this Department, dated 6th February 1856, No. 11, that a Civil Servant must return to his duty at the expiration of his "privilege" leave to entitle him to the advantages thereof.

His allowances will therefore not be payable till he shall have rejoined his appointment.

Extract from a Despatch from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors addressed to the Government of India, in the Financial Department, No. 11 of 1856, dated the 6th February:—

Para. 18. We observe that this "privilege" leave was granted to Mr Money preparatory to his proceeding on Furlough; but "privilege" leave ought only to be allowed when it is the intention of the Servant to return to his duty at the close of it. The object of the indulgence should be kept in view, and the advantage of leave, with full salary, should be reserved for those Servants who, having been at their stations for eleven consecutive months, (or longer if the leave be accumulated) require a little relaxation, and after enjoying it return to their duty. It is the rule that if a Civil Servant, whilst absent on "privilege" leave, be granted extended leave, under Medical certificate, he shall be considered liable to the Rules applicable to leave of absence, on Medical certificate, for the whole period of his absence; and we see no reason for maintaining a different practice when a Furlough on private affairs is taken in extension of "privilege" leave. In the latter case, a moiety

Letter from, dated 19th July 1855, No. 94.—Report Proceedings in this Department for the 4th Quarter of 1854.

(76.) Mr. E. Money, Officiating Judge of Mabarshabad, not having been absent from his post for two years, before the promulgation of the new Absentee Rules, has been granted the benefit of accumulated privilege leave under Section XIII. of the Rules, on the ground that service before, as well as after, the introduction of the new Rules reckoned towards qualifying for the privilege.

only of salary should be drawn up to the date of the absentee's quitting India on Furlough Allowance.

No. 33.

Para. 6. With reference to the representations which have been made to you on this subject, we concur in the propriety of your having ruled that Security shall in future only be required from Civil Servants when proceeding on regular Furlough, or when resigning the Service.

7. We shall not accept the resignation of any Civil Servant, during absence in this country on sick leave or special leave on private affairs, without ascertaining that there are no demands against him. A prompt reply to our reference in such cases will be essential.

8. It will be requisite that this alteration of practice should be promulgated for the information of our Civil Servants.

No. 34.

Para. 43. The subject here reported upon has been decided in our Despatch in this Department dated 6th December 1855, No. 107.

44. It appears to have been the practice at Madras to permit all absence of Uncovenanted Servants, on authorized leave, to reckon as service for pension. Although this has been put a stop to, we should not consider it just to allow those Uncovenanted Servants who may have enjoyed the advantage beyond the limit fixed by the new Rule to be now deprived of counting their past leave as service.

Candidates are recommended to make early application, and to forward, written in their own hand, an account of their qualifications and the nature and extent of their education, &c. &c., verified by such Certificates and Testimonials as they are desirous of having inspected. Candidates should bear in mind, that an inferior knowledge of Bengalee will not be considered as compensated for by an English education however superior, and that a less amount of the knowledge acquired at School and out of Books, provided the Candidate has some acquaintance with the mode of conducting business in a Revenue Office, will be preferred to higher attainments unaccompanied with experience. It should also not be lost sight of by Candidates for the appointment, that living at Chittagong is expensive, the climate is bad, and the means of getting away from the Station are only available for a few months in the year.

in like manner to obtain the assistance of an accountant or actuary.

the Society, every part thereof which shall not be awarded by the Court to members or representatives of deceased members, may, if the Court shall think fit, be applied for the benefit of pensioners or persons entitled to become pensioners, whether they shall consent to commute their interests or not.

The 18th July 1856.

The Governor General in Council is pleased to recognize the nomination of Mr. G. F. Edmonstone as Consul at Calcutta for the City of Hamburg.

G. F. EDMONSTONE,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

No. 3940.

The 22nd July 1856.

Notification.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following Convention between Her Majesty and the King of the Netherlands, for the reciprocal admission of Consuls of the one Nation to the Colonies and Foreign Possessions of the other.

By order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council,

G. F. EDMONSTONE,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Convention between Her Majesty and the King of the Netherlands, for the reciprocal admission of Consuls of the one Party to the Colonies and Foreign Possessions of the other.

Signed at the Hague, March 6th 1856.

[Ratifications exchanged at the Hague, April 29th 1856.]

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, being desirous to strengthen the bonds of friendship which exist between the United Kingdom and the Kingdom of the Netherlands, and to secure the fullest possible extension to the relations of commerce happily established between the two Nations, have consented to admit Consuls of the one Kingdom to the Ports of the Colonies and Foreign Possessions of the other, on condition however that such concession shall form the subject of a special Convention.

For this purpose, Her Britannic Majesty, and His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, have named as their Plenipotentiaries, that is to say:

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland the Honorable Sir Ralph Abercromby, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Her Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, Grand Duke of Luxembourg;

And His Majesty the King of the Netherlands the Sieur Floris Adrian van Hall, Knight Grand Cross of the Order of the Netherlands Lion, of the Order of the Crown of Oak, of the Order of the White Falcon of Saxe Weimar, of the Order of Leopold of Belgium, of the Order of the Ernestine Branch of the House of Saxony, of the Imperial Russian Order of the White Eagle, and of the Hanoverian Guelphic Order, His Minister of State holding the Department of Foreign Affairs; and the Sieur Peter Mijer, Commander of the Order of the Netherlands Lion, His Minister holding the Department of the Colonies;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles:—

ARTICLE I.

Consuls-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls of Great Britain shall be admitted in all the Ports of the Colonies and Foreign Possessions of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, which are open to the vessels of all Nations.

In like manner Consuls-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls of the Netherlands shall be admitted in all the Ports of the Colonies and Foreign Possessions of Her Britannic Majesty, which are open to the vessels of all Nations.

ARTICLE II.

The Consuls-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls shall be considered as commercial agents and as protectors of the commerce of their Nation within their respective Consular Districts.

They shall be subject as well to the Civil as to the Criminal Laws of the Colony or place where they reside, with the exceptions established in their favor by the present Convention.

ARTICLE III.

Every Consul-General or Consul of either of the two Contracting Parties, appointed to reside in a Colony or Foreign Possession of the other, shall, before being admitted to the exercise of his functions, and to the enjoyment of the immunities which are attached thereto, produce to the Government of the Country to which the Colony or Possession belongs a Commission from his own Sovereign, and shall obtain from that Government an exequatur in due form, which shall, as soon as possible, be countersigned by the Governor of the Colony. He shall then be entitled to the protection of the Government, and to the assistance of the local authorities, for the free exercise of his functions.

It is understood that, with regard to Consuls of the Netherlands appointed to reside in the Territories which are under the Government of the East India Company, their Commissions must be produced to the Government in London, and the exequatur or recognition will be granted by the Governor General of India.

The Government which grants the exequatur reserves to itself the power of withdrawing it, or of causing it to be withdrawn by the Governor of the Colony or Possession; explaining, however, to the other Government its reasons for so doing.

ARTICLE IV.

The Government of a Colony or Foreign Possession of either of the two High Contracting Parties shall afford every assistance and protection in its power for the safety of all archives and documents relative to the affairs of a Consulate of the other Party established in such Colony or Possession.

ARTICLE V.

Consuls-General and Consuls shall be authorized to place above the outer door of their house a representation of the arms of their Sovereign, with the inscription "British Consulate" or "Consulate of the Netherlands," as the case may be.

It is clearly understood, that this external sign shall never be construed as giving a right of asylum, nor as exempting the house and the persons who reside in it from the jurisdiction of the local judicial authorities.

ARTICLE VI.

Consuls-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls are not invested with any diplomatic character; but in all urgent cases of local and commercial interest, they may address themselves to the Governor of the Colony or Possession.

ARTICLE VII.

Consuls-General and Consuls shall have the right to appoint Vice-Consuls for the Ports of their Consular Districts.

Such Vice-Consuls may be selected, without distinction, from subjects of either of the Contracting Parties, or from subjects or citizens of any other Country, residing, or qualified, according to the local laws, to be admitted to reside in the Port where the Vice-Consul is to be appointed.

The nomination of such Vice-Consuls shall be submitted by the Consul for the approbation of the Governor of the Colony or Possession; and they shall be furnished with an appointment signed by the Consul, under whose orders they are to exercise their functions.

The Governor of the Colony or Possession may at any time withdraw from a Vice-Consul the approbation above-mentioned; explaining to the Consul-General or Consul of the District his reasons for so doing.

ARTICLE VIII.

Passports issued or countersigned by Consular Agents shall in no wise exempt the persons holding them from providing themselves with all the documents required by the local laws, in order to travel or to establish themselves in the Colonies or Foreign Possessions of the respective Parties.

The Governor of the Colony or Possession shall have the right to forbid the stay therein of any individual to whom a passport may have been delivered, or to order his departure.

ARTICLE IX.

If a vessel of one of the two Contracting Parties should be cast upon the coast of a Colony or Foreign Possession of the other, and neither the owner, master, nor any person to represent him should be upon the spot, the Consul-General, Consul, or Vice-Consul present at the place of the wreck or of the salvage shall take all the necessary measures for saving the vessel, the cargo, and all that appertains thereto, and shall take possession of the same for the benefit of the owners.

In the absence of the Consul-General, Consul, or Vice-Consul, the local authorities of the place where the vessel has been wrecked shall take the measures prescribed by the Laws of the Colony or Possession. And in this case the ship, and all parts thereof, and all furniture and appurtenances belonging thereunto, and all goods and merchandize saved therefrom, and any papers found on board of such ship, shall, on payment of the expenses incurred in the preservation of the property, and of the salvage or other expenses which would have been payable in the like case of a wreck of a national vessel, be delivered to the owners or their agents, or to the British or Netherland Consul-General, Consul, or Vice-Consul, as the case may be.

Goods and merchandize saved from wreck shall in all cases be allowed to be cleared for consumption to the same extent, and on payment of the same duties, as if they had been imported in a ship belonging to the Country in whose Colony or Foreign Possession the wreck takes place: and no goods or merchandize so saved shall be liable to any import duties unless cleared for consumption.

The provisions of this Article shall however, on both sides, be held to be subject to any now existing Colonial Laws.

ARTICLE X.

Arrangements having been already made between the Governments of Great Britain and of the Netherlands, for the mutual arrest and surrender of seamen who may desert from merchant vessels of the one Country in the Ports of the other, it is agreed that the local authorities in the Colonies and Foreign Possessions of either of the two Contracting Parties shall afford to the Consul-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls of the other, all such assistance as they may be enabled by Law to give for the arrest and surrender of seamen who may desert from the merchant vessels of their Nation while in the Ports of those Possessions and Colonies.

If the deserter shall have committed any crime or offence against the Laws of the Colony or Possession, his surrender may be deferred until the Court which has cognizance thereof shall have given its sentence, and the sentence have been carried into effect.

ARTICLE XI.

If a subject of either of the two Contracting Parties should die in a Colony or Foreign Possession of the other, without leaving any known heirs or testamentary executors, the authorities charged according to the Law of the Colony or Possession with the administration of the succession shall give notice of the death to the Consular Agent of the other Contracting Party, in order that he may transmit the requisite information to the parties interested.

ARTICLE XII.

The Consul-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls of one of the two Contracting Parties shall, in the Colonies and Foreign Possessions of the other, have the right, so far as may be there permitted to the Consul-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls of the most favored Nation, and as far as the Laws of their own Country may permit them, to act as judges and arbitrators in differences which may arise between the Captains and the Crews of vessels of their own Country, without the intervention of the local authorities, unless the conduct of the Crew or of the Captain should be such as to disturb the order and tranquility of the place, or unless the Consul-General, Consul, and Vice-Consuls should require the assistance of the said authorities, in order to carry their decisions into execution, or to maintain the authority thereof.

It is however understood, that any such special decision or arbitration shall not preclude the litigating parties from the right of appealing, on their return, to the judicial authorities of their own Country.

ARTICLE XIII.

The Consul-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls of one of the two Contracting Parties in the Colonies or Possessions of the other, shall enjoy the same privileges which are, or may be, there granted to agents of the same character belonging to the most favored Nation: and especially they shall, unless subjects of the Country, be exempt from all Military Service, and from Military requisitions, as well as from all pecuniary compositions in lieu of Military Service.

Exemption from taxation shall, however, not be claimed for any such Consul-General, Consul, or Vice-Consul, who may be a subject of the Country or engaged in any profession, occupation, or business besides his Consular duties; nor unless a corresponding exemption be enjoyed by Consular Agents of that Country of the same description in the Colonies and Foreign Possessions of the other.

ARTICLE XIV.

The present Convention shall continue in force for five years from the date of the exchange of the ratifications, which shall take place at the Hague as soon as possible within the period of two months.

In case neither of the Contracting Parties should have given notice to the other, twelve months before the expiration of the said period of five years, of its intention to put an end to the Convention, it shall continue in force a year longer, and so on from year to year, each Party being at liberty to give the year's notice at the expiration of four years, or of any subsequent year.

In witness whereof, the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Convention, and have affixed thereto the seals of their arms.

Done at the Hague, this Sixth day of March, in the year of Our Lord One-thousand Eight-hundred and Fifty-six.

Mitchins, 54th Regiment Native Infantry, Executive Officer of the Dacca Division, leave of absence, on Medical certificate, to remain at Simla, for the recovery of his health, from the 31st March last to the 15th November 1856.

Lieutenant S. C. Jervis, Engineers, Executive Engineer of the 2nd Division Dacca and Arracan Road, to officiate as Executive Engineer of the 6th or Allahabad Division, until further orders.

No. 1010 of 1856.—With reference to the Government General Orders noted in the margin, the Right

Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council is pleased to promulgate the following alterations in modification of existing Regulations, relative to Deposits of European Soldiers of Her Majesty's and the Hon'ble Company's Service in the Government Savings' Bank, consequent on the approaching abolition of the Government Agency:—

I. When the deposits of Soldiers reach the sum of Rupees (1,500) one-thousand and five-hundred, the amount shall be invested by the Secretary to the Government Savings' Bank in the usual way in a Treasury Note, and all Deposits amounting to Rupees (500) five-hundred shall also be invested in like manner when the Depositor desires it.

II. When a Treasury Note remains undelivered for three months after investment, it shall be carried to a separate account, to be opened in the name of the depositor in a Ledger to be kept for that purpose by the Secretary to the Government Savings' Bank, but interest upon Treasury Notes so transferred shall remain undrawn. Depositors however who may communicate their wishes to that effect to the Secretary to the Government Savings' Bank can have their Treasury Notes made over to the Bank of Bengal.

III. The above Rules are applicable to Military Depositors, who make their Deposits direct through Divisional Pay Offices, as well as to those who are in account with Regimental Savings' Bank.

Fort William, 25th July 1856.

No. 1011 of 1856.—The under-mentioned individual is admitted to Pension, as specified opposite to his name, under the provisions of Minutes of Council of the 11th January 1797 and General Order of the 5th February 1830, subject to the confirmation of the Hon'ble the Court of Directors:—

School Serjeant Charles Watling, of the Regiment of Artillery,	Thirty Rupees per month, payable in India.

No. 1012 of 1856.—Every Recruit, on enlisting into a Native Regiment, is required to take an oath that he "will never forsake nor abandon his colors," and that he "will march wherever he is ordered, whether within or beyond the Company's Territories."

It has been the practice of Government to consider this oath, when not otherwise explained at the time of enlistment, as not in itself binding the Soldier to proceed on service beyond Sea, and therefore, whenever Regiments have been raised for service beyond Sea, no man has been drafted or enlisted into them but with his own consent, and with a full and clear understanding of his engagement to serve beyond Sea when required to do so. From this practice the Government will not depart.

It is with a full and clear understanding of this engagement to serve beyond Sea when required to do so, that the Native Artillery, Horse and Foot, and six Regiments of Native Infantry, the 25th, 40th, 47th, 65th, 67th and 68th, which are the only Corps of the Bengal Army available for general service, have been recruited.

The cheerful alacrity with which these Regiments have at all times done their duty, wherever it has called them, and the distinction which they have won for themselves, are well known to the Army, and will never be forgotten by the Government of India.

Neither does the Government forget how often, when it has needed the service of its Troops in Foreign Countries, the Native Officers and Soldiers of other Regiments have come forward to form Volunteer Battalions, or to proceed as entire Corps, to serve beyond Sea.

The readiness with which they have done so is honorable to themselves, and is thankfully acknowledged by the Government.

But it has become very inconvenient to the Government, and it is hurtful to the State, that a small portion only of the Native Army of Bengal should be surely available for the service of the State beyond Sea, and this inconvenience is not much diminished by the fact that the entire Armies of Madras and Bombay are enlisted without any limitation of their place of service.

For this reason the Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council will not henceforward except the services of any Native Recruit for a Regiment of Light Cavalry, of Irregular Cavalry, of Infantry of the Line, or for the Kelat-i-Ahlik, Ferozepore and Loodianah Regiments, in the Army of Bengal, who does not at the time of his enlistment distinctly undertake to serve beyond Sea, whether within the Territories of the Company, or beyond them.

His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief will be requested to take the necessary measures to ensure the due fulfilment of this determination of the Governor General in Council, by enjoining Officers Commanding the Regiments above mentioned to be strictly careful that, from and after the 1st of September next, no Recruit shall be enlisted except for general service, and that each Recruit, on taking the prescribed oath, shall be made clearly to understand the conditions on which he is enlisted.

No. 1013 of 1856.—Lieutenant J. Sykes, of the 66th or Goorka Regiment, Second in Command of the 7th Regiment of Infantry, Oude Irregular Force, is allowed leave of absence, from the 10th July to the 1st September 1856, to visit the Presidency, preparatory to applying for leave of absence on Sick certificate to Europe, under the new Regulations.

No. 1014 of 1856.—The Regimental Order issued to the 7th Regiment of Infantry, Oude Irregular Force, dated the 10th instant, appointing Ensign and Adjutant C. H. Meacham to act as Second in Command, in addition to his other duties, from that date, during the absence on leave of Lieutenant J. Sykes, or until further orders, is confirmed.

No. 1015 of 1856.—Cattle Sergeant John Renney, of Artillery, attached to the Commissariat Department, who was admitted to Pension in India, subject to the approval of the Hon'ble Court, in Government General Order No. 764, of the 22nd May last, is permitted, instead, to draw his stipend in Europe, subject to the Court's approval, at the rate of two Shillings per diem.

No. 1016 of 1856.—Major General Sir John Cheape, K. C. B., Commanding the Presidency Division, is permitted to proceed to the Neilgherry Hills and Ceylon, on private affairs, and to be absent from Bengal, on that account, for six months, resigning his appointment on the Divisional Staff, from the date of departure.

No. 1017 of 1856.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council is pleased to direct that the following communication from the Horse Guards, dated 9th June 1856, to His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief in India, which has been laid before Government by His Excellency, be published in General Orders:—

Horse Guards, 9th June 1856.

SIR,

With reference to your letter of the 8th February last, and copy of the one annexed from Lieutenant General Sir Henry Somerset, respecting the tenure of Brigade Commands in the Bombay Presidency, I am directed by the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief to state, that it is certainly intended that Commands should not be held for more than the period of five years, as fixed by the Royal Warrant, and that unless in some case where the change cannot be effected without inconvenience to the Service, the rule should be observed in Brigade Commands in the several Indian Presidencies.

The Field Marshal must therefore leave it to the General Officers in Command to make such arrangements as will give effect to the requirement of the Warrant in this respect.

I have, &c.

Legislative Council.

The 26th July 1856.

The following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 25th July 1856, and is hereby promulgated for general information.

ACT No. XV OF 1856.

An Act to remove all legal obstacles to the marriage of Hindoo Widows.

WHEREAS it is known that, by the law as administered in the Civil Courts established in the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, Hindoo widows, with certain exceptions, are held to be, by reason of their having been once married, incapable of contracting a second valid marriage, and the offspring of such widows by any second marriage are held to be illegitimate and incapable of inheriting property: and whereas many Hindoos believe that this imputed legal incapacity, although it is in accordance with established custom, is not in accordance with a true interpretation of the precepts of their religion, and desire that the Civil law administered by the Courts of justice shall no longer prevent those Hindoos who may be so minded from adopting a different custom, in accordance with the dictates of their own consciences: and whereas it is just to relieve all such Hindoos from this legal incapacity of which they complain; and the removal of all legal obstacles to the marriage of Hindoo Widows will tend to the promotion of good morals and to the public welfare: It is enacted as follows:—

I. No marriage contracted between Hindoos shall be invalid, and the issue of no such marriage shall be illegitimate, by reason of the woman having been previously married or betrothed.

ed to another person who was dead at the time of such marriage, any custom and any interpretation of Hindoo law to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. All rights and interests which any widow may have in her deceased husband's property by way of maintenance, or by inheritance to her husband or to his lineal successors, or by virtue of any will or testamentary disposition conferring upon her, without express permission to re-marry, only a limited interest in such property with no power of alienating the same, shall, upon her re-marriage, cease and determine as if she had then died; and the next heirs of her deceased husband, or other persons entitled to the property on her death, shall thereupon succeed to the same.

III. On the re-marriage of a Hindoo widow, if neither the widow nor any other person has been expressly constituted by the will or testamentary disposition of the deceased husband, the guardian of his children, the father or paternal grandfather, or the mother or paternal grandmother, of the deceased husband, or any male relative of the deceased husband, may petition the highest Court having original jurisdiction in Civil cases in the place where the deceased husband was domiciled at the time of his death, for the appointment of some proper person to be guardian of the said children, and thereupon it shall be lawful for the said Court, if it shall think fit, to appoint such guardian, who, when appointed, shall be entitled to have the care and custody of the said children, or of any of them, during their minority, in the place of their mother; and in making such appointment the Court shall be guided, so far as may be, by the laws and rules in force touching the guardianship of children who have neither father nor mother. Provided that, when the said children have not property of their own sufficient for their support and proper education whilst minors, no such appointment shall be made otherwise than with the consent of the mother, unless the proposed guardian shall have given security for the support and proper education of the children whilst minors.

IV. Nothing in this Act contained shall be

Nothing in this Act construed to render any widow, who, at the time of the death of any person leaving any property, is a childless widow, capable of inheriting the whole or any share of such property, if, before the passing of this Act, she would have been incapable of inheriting the same by reason of her being a childless widow.

V. Except as in the three preceding Sections is provided, a widow shall not, by reason of her re-marriage, forfeit any property, or any right to which she would otherwise be entitled; and every widow who has re-married shall have the same rights of inheritance as she would have had, had such marriage been her first marriage.

Saving of rights of widow marrying except as provided in the three preceding Sections.

VI. Whatever words spoken, ceremonies performed, or engagements made, on the marriage of a Hindu female who has not been previously married, are sufficient to constitute a valid marriage, shall have the same effect if spoken, performed, or made on the marriage of a Hindu widow; and no marriage shall be declared invalid on the ground that such words, ceremonies, or engagements, are inapplicable to the case of a widow.

VII. If the widow re-marrying is a minor whose marriage has not been consummated, she shall not re-marry without the consent of her father, or if she has no father, of her paternal grandfather, or if she has no such grandfather, of her mother, or failing all these, of her elder brother, or failing also brothers, of her next male relative. All persons knowingly abetting a marriage made contrary to the provisions of this Section shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding one year, or to fine, or to both. And all marriages made contrary to the provisions of this Section may be declared void by a Court of law. Provided that, in any question regarding the validity of a marriage made contrary to the provisions of this Section, such consent as is aforesaid shall be presumed until the contrary is proved, and that no such marriage shall be declared void after it has been consummated. In the case of a widow who is of full age, or whose marriage has been consummated, her own consent shall be sufficient consent to constitute her re-marriage lawful and valid.

raising a Fund called "The Bengal Mariners' and General Widows' Fund," the interest, dividends, and proceeds of which Fund are thereby directed to be applied in making provision at certain specified rates for the widows and children of the subscribers or their nominees; and it is thereby declared that such provision shall be made solely out of the interest and dividends of the said Fund; and whereas a petition has been presented to the Legislative Council by certain directors, members, and beneficiaries of the Society, stating that the said interest, dividends, and proceeds have for many years been insufficient to make the provision intended by the Articles of Agreement, and that the reduction of the pensions is so great as to amount to a disappointment of the expectations of the founders of the Fund, and virtually a failure to accomplish the object of the Fund; and praying that an Act may be passed to wind up the affairs of the said Society; and whereas no provision is made in the Deed for the dissolution of the said Society and the distribution of the Funds belonging thereto, and it is expedient to make provision for the same by law: It is enacted as follows:—

I. On the petition to the Supreme Court of a

Supreme Court, on petition, may make order for dissolving the Society and winding up the affairs of the Fund, &c.

majority of the Directors of the said Bengal Mariners' and General Widows' Fund, or of any ten Members of the Society and pensionaries on the said Fund, praying for the dissolution of the said Society, and the winding up of the affairs of the said Fund, it shall be lawful for the said Supreme Court to make order for the same on the said petition, as fully as if the petitioners proceeded by information or Bill, and as if there were parties defendants, and as fully as if the Deed of the said Society provided for the winding up of the said Fund; and it shall be lawful for the said Court to make order for ascertaining and declaring the rights which attach on the said Fund, and for taking the accounts of the said Fund, and for the apportionment, division, and distribution of the said Fund; and for the ascertainment of the nature and number of the different claims on the said Fund, and of the persons having or entitled to make the said claims; and for the payment of the proper costs of the Directors of the said Society, and of all parties conducting or otherwise concerned in the matter of the said petition, and subsequent proceedings for winding up the said Fund.

II. It shall be lawful for the Court, in such way as they may think fit to obtain the assistance of an accountant or actuary the better to enable the Court to determine any matter relating to the division and distribution of the Fund, and to act upon the certificate of such person or persons; and in case it shall be deemed necessary to make any reference to the Master in Equity of the said Court in the matter of such petition, it shall be lawful for the said Court to order that the Master in Equity shall be at liberty in like manner to obtain the assistance of an accountant or actuary.

III. In the cases of pensioners, or persons entitled to become pensioners, who shall consent to commute their pensions, it shall be lawful for the Court to order that the amounts to be paid in commutation shall be settled, invested, or paid, in such manner as will give the several persons therein interested the full benefit thereof.

IV. In the cases of pensioners, or persons entitled to become pensioners, who shall refuse to commute their pensions it shall be lawful for the Court to order a sufficient sum to be set apart out of the said Fund to provide for the due payment of such pensions, and also to sanction and give effect to any arrangement which it may deem just and sufficient for the future payment of any uncommuted pensions by any Life Insurance Company willing to undertake the payment of such pensions.

V. The guardians of minors pensioners on the said Fund, shall have full power and authority to consent on their behalf to commute the pensions of the minors for a fixed sum; and the said Court shall have full power and authority to give effect to such consent and to make such order as the said Court may deem just for the application of the said commuted sum for the future benefit of the infant; and if there be no guardian, the mother, during her widowhood, may act as guardian, unless the Court shall otherwise order, and, if necessary, the Court may appoint a guardian for any minor.

VI. In dividing and distributing the funds of the Society, every part thereof of which shall not be awarded by the Court to members or representatives of deceased members, may, if the Court shall think fit, be applied for the benefit of pensioners or persons entitled to become pensioners, whether they shall consent to commute their interests or not.

VII. With a view to expedite the distribution of the surplus of the said Fund, over and above what may probably be necessary to provide for the pensions, the said Court shall have full power and authority at any time to order payment of a dividend of the said probable surplus, to the persons entitled to the same, although the exact surplus and the exact amount of charges may not then be ascertained.

VIII. For the purpose of winding up the said Fund, and finally closing the accounts thereof, the like proceedings shall be had for the bringing in of claimants on the said Fund, as in ordinary administration suits for bringing in creditors and other persons; and claimants being pensioners, or entitled to be pensioners, who may neglect to come in a due course, or within the time limited for that purpose, shall be deemed to have consented to commute their pensions, and a final distribution may be made of the said Fund.
